

Announcement

On 14 March 2018, Prudential issued an announcement on its intention to create two separately listed companies, Prudential plc and M&G Prudential. You can find further information on this news at <http://www.prudential.co.uk/news/mandgprudential-demerger>.

Prudential plc continues to be a leading international insurance group and remains committed to serving the protection and savings needs of the people in Asia, where it has built a strong presence for over 94 years.

The plan is subject to a number of factors, including certain approvals. The entire process will likely take a couple years to complete.
